Profile

Tyler Knauff, stage name T. Ka$h, is an independent musician, songwriter, podcaster, and business owner based out of San Diego, California. With a style reminiscent of a variation between Smino and J. Cole's more melodic sound and the hard hitting instrumentation of Joey Bada$$ and DaBaby, he focuses on standing out from other white rappers. His inspirations include Tyler, The Creator, Mac Miller, and the East Coast Collaboration: Beast Coast.

T. Ka$h has released 26 songs with over 71,000 total streams. His highest streamed song being Rocketeer, released March 9th, 2021. He has performed at greater than 10 different venues all over San Diego. However, due to COVID, he took a small hiatus. He is now back with a new vision. He plans to release his next single, "Glass House" on September 24th. He's also performing at the End of Summer Bash Festival on September 18th, 2021. Performing alongside some of San Diego's best and upcoming artists. T. Ka$h plans to make even more noise than before this year as he perfects his craft.
